ROCKVILLE NEWS

Daughter of James Loughborough Narrowly Escapes When Bullet Enters Window.

(Special to The Washington Times.) ROCKVILLE, Md., July 18.—Philip F. Gormley, contractor, has bought the farm of the late John Jones, near Martinsburg, this county, for a price reported to be $40,000. It contains 506 acres.

The Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiated at the marriage here of Miss Evelyn Wilson and Charles E. White, both of Washington, and Miss Anna M. Anthony, of Concordia, Kan., and Harold C. Arms, of Swanton, Vt.

Sheriff William L. Aud is endeavoring to locate the person who sent a bullet through the window of an upstairs room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Loughborough, near Bethesda, this county, a few nights ago. The bullet crashed through the shutter and window, and struck the wall on the opposite side of the room. Just a few seconds before a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loughborough had been standing directly in the path of the bullet.

Typhoid fever having made its appearance in several sections of the county, county health authorities are taking steps to prevent its spread and stamp it out.

At the next meeting of the county board of education, Dr. William T. Pratt, county health officer, will ask permission for the free inoculation of all public school children upon the opening of the schools for the next year, and Dr. Pratt has given notice that he will inoculate persons free.

A license has been issued by the clerk of the circuit court here for the marriage of Miss Minnie Frances Ricketts, of Galterburg, and Randolph C. Edwards, of this vicinity.

The Rockville baseball team defeated the Cokesville nine at the fair grounds here, the score being 12 to 5. The batteries were Bell, Cromwell, and Beall, for Rockville, and Hobbs and Hobbs, for Cokesville. Rockville will play Kensington here tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Petrie Hoyle, of Washington, has bought from Robert B. Peter and Albert M. Bouie, of Rockville, a farm of ninety-six and one-half acres, near Silver Spring, this county, for $18,000.

The Rev. John R. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, was the officiating minister at the marriage here yesterday of Miss Ella M. Stiles and John M. Houston, both of Indianapolis, Pa., the ceremony taking place at the home of the minister.

50 NAMES ON CITY CLUB WAITING LIST

With the task of securing 1,500 members achieved, a big program lies before the City Club of Washington, which yesterday held a jubilee celebration and luncheon over the success of the enrollment campaign.

Cheers were given each captain yesterday as he made his final report on the number of members secured by his team. Every member present applauded Charles W. Semmes, chairman of the membership committee, when he reported that 135 applications had come in yesterday, although only eighty-five were needed to round out the desired number. This leaves a waiting list of fifty. "Honey Boy" Evans sang an original song commemorating the success of the membership campaign.

The first prize, an electric vacuum cleaner, offered by E. C. Graham, of the National Electric Supply Company, to the team captain securing the largest number of new members, went to George Pitt. The second prize, a hat, offered by Sidney West, to the captain of the team making the second best record, was given to Holcombe Johnson.

Team captains and campaign workers were lauded by J. A. Whitfield, president of the club, and by Mr. Semmes, for their untiring efforts and their loyal co-operation.

Speeches were also made by T. Lincoln Townsend and Lieut. Col. Anton Stephan, of the Third District of Columbia Infantry, who has just returned from long service in France. Colonel Stephan related some of his war experiences. He denied reports that tasks in France were immoral, and paid high tribute to the sobriety and high moral standards of the men.
